Howdy Folks; We heard about a man who lived to be 94 and never used glasses. But then some men prefer to drink right out of the bottle.

And as some one has said, more glasses are used under the nose nowadays than over them.

And, of course, the only exercise some fellows get is chinning at the bar.

One of our customers, who is a high school student said he liked mathematics when they weren't over his head. We feel the same way about pigeons.

We know you'll like our Moist Master Kelvinator with its new glass shelves.

Try it and be convinced.

AZORES FRIENDLY TO AMERICA, SAYS RETURNED VISITOR

By Gladys Williamson

WARM SPRINGS — Enthusiastic accounts of the tourist trade possibilities of the Azores, strategic archipelago of the Atlantic lying 2000 miles from the United States, are related by Joseph Valim, supreme secretary of the I. D. E. S. Lodge at the organization's home at Warm Springs.

Utmost friendliness of the general population of the nine islands toward the United States was stressed by Valim. "If anybody has to take over the islands the United States is the preferred nation," Valim said.

Ties made by the residents of the Azores and their descendants in this country, financial aid to the old country by Americanized Portuguese living in this country and action of the United States during the last World War are responsible for this feeling of friendship, according to Valim.

U. S. Flags Flown

On a recent visit by him to his native island, San Jorge, American flags were flown during a Holy Ghost fiesta. An estimated total of 250,000 Azorean-born citizens reside in the United States, almost equaling the 300,000 population of the islands, which are located about 1,000 miles from Portugal.

"Isles of enchantment," Valim describes the land where he was born and which he recently visited. Luxuriant vegetation; year-round climate similar to California Spring time, opportunities for hunting, fishing, enjoyment of countless beaches and the motorboats that ply between the islands, gorges and vistas of matchless beauty, mineral springs of medicinal value, waterfalls, thatched roofs and cobbled streets, stone houses with tiled roofs—these are the things that would lure tourists if the proper exploitations were possible. The only thing that is lacking is American ingenuity and capital.

Taught in Azores

Valim taught school in the Azores before coming to this country after graduating from the normal school at Caleta.

During the last war during an epidemic in the islands, the U.S. Navy, which had a base on San Miguel, gave "all out" aid in the way of medical supplies, transportation to hospitals, etc. "The people do not forget," Valim said.

ALL CENTRAL BANK EMPLOYEES BUY BONDS 100 PERCENT

Central Bank today became one of the first large business firms in the nation to have 100 percent of its employees buy United States Savings Bonds and Stamps. All the workers in the Niles, Irvington, Alvarado, Marysville, and Oakland Central Bank offices have put part of their savings behind American defense. A red, white, and blue 100 percent display is featured in each lobby.

Each patriotic card reveals the fact that employees who have bought defense bonds and stamps are exactly the same as the payroll, 100 percent.

Carl F. Wente of Oakland, president of Central Bank, pointed out today that the present defense drive needs the support of every American. "We believe that every person who works in America should help defend America," Wente said, "and that business firms and their employees should back up Uncle Sam by subscribing to United States Defense Bonds and Stamps."

HARRY K. SARGENT

Late of the Masonic Home at Decoto. A former sergeant of the Northwest Mounted Police in Canada

LATE RESIDENT OF MASONIC HOME WAS ONCE MOUNTIE

DECOTO — The recent passing of Attorney Harry K. Sargent of Los Angeles, after a residence of a few months at the Decoto Home, recalls another instance where the Royal Canadian Mounted Police got their man, this time, however, a man of their own number more than 50 years ago, but they had to do it through the Canadian Parliament.

Back in 1885 while a member of the famous police organization, Sargent participated in the Riel Rebellion, which resulted in squelching a general Indian uprising throughout the middle West of Canadian Territory. The French and French half Breed settlers on the Saskatchewan were in considerable measure the same people who had engaged in the first rebellion led by Riel in 1869, on the Red River, with the intention of preventing Canada from taking possession of the west.

At the close of that first rebellion Riel, who it is recorded, was "part knave and part megalomaniac or madman with an exaggerated opinion of himself," had escaped to Montana, where he engaged in various employments, the last being that of teacher in a mission school. The credit for suppressing the uprising was shared by the missionaries and the mounted police.

The search of Mounted Police resulted in locating Sargent in Los Angeles, where for 20 years he had been active in his profession as a lawyer. Twenty years before that he had studied law and had been admitted to the Oregon bar, practicing in Portland.

At the age of 19 he enlisted with the red-coated Mounted Police. The Riel Rebellion broke out within a few miles of the encampment of Sargent's detachment. Sargent was decorated for his service with the Queen Victoria Medal when he left the Mounted Police, after serving five years, he had risen to the rank of Sergeant.

Located in Los Angeles in 1932, Sargent applied for $300.00 due him from the Canadian Government. Receipt of his application brought the following letter dated, Oct. 17 of that year on Stationery of the commission of the Royal Canadian Police, Ottawa:

"Referring to your application for the grant of $300.00 in lieu of scrip, for service as a member of the North West Mounted Police, during the Rebellion of 1885;

I now enclose Departmental Cheque No. 3106, in your favour, for the sum of $300.00, in payment of the grant in question.

Will you please acknowledge receipt and oblige.

Yours very truly,
T. S. Belcher,
Deputy Commissioner.

THIS Canadian-made bomb which weighs a mere 500 pounds is just one of some 100,000 that Canada expects to manufacture and ship to Great Britain this year. In addition to equipping and maintaining her own forces on active service at home and abroad, Canada is aiding Great Britain to purchase materials of war in the Dominion by providing her with Canadian dollars for this purpose. During the current fiscal year, Canada expects to lend the Mother Country $1,500,000,000 to help her do this buying; and this sum in terms of American population and income is equivalent to $23,000,000,000 under the Lend-Lease Act.

STATE HUNTERS BAG 4,204 DEER SO FAR THIS YEAR

According to tags received by the California State Division of Fish and Game to August 9th, 4,204 deer have been taken by hunters so far this season.

J. S. Hunter, Chief of the Bureau of Game Conservation, states this figure compares very favorably with that for the same period last year when 4,083 deer were taken.

The three leading counties are Mendocino, Lake and Humboldt with a reported kill of 1094, 630 and 352 respectively.

The fifteen day season in San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura and Western Kern Counties will reduce the kill in that section so that perhaps the total kill of the season will not be as great as that of last season.

"MOON OVER MIAMI" CALLED SEASON'S BEST

The 20th Century-Fox technicolor musical, "Moon Over Miami", one of the season's best pictures will be shown to the public of Southern Alameda County next Wednesday and Thursday evening at the Niles Theatre, Manager "Bill" Helm announces.

Featuring Don Ameche, Betty Grable, and Robert Cummings in their most delightful and entertaining roles, "Moon Over Miami" is the gay, tune-filled tale of two girls, Betty Grable and Carole Landis, and their aunt, Charlotte Greenwood, who spend a fortune-hunting holiday in Miami, the glamour city of the South. In their search for a millionaire Betty, who's been delegated to do the catching, lands not one, but two, Don Ameche and Robert Cummings. The only trouble is that Betty falls for Don, an Ex-millionaire who is also reaching for riches.

Not only is "Moon over Miami" tune-filled, but each of the eight Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger melodies merit a hit rating. From the very first night, audiences have been whistling and humming "Kin dergarten Conga," "Hurrah For Today," "Miami, I've Got you All To Myself," "Loveliness and Love," "You started Something," "Is That Good," and "Solitary Seminole."

In the same class with the songs are the sensational dance routines staged by Dance Director Hermes Pan, and featuring Betty Grable, Pan himself, Jack Cole, and the Condos Brothers. Betty and Hermes do a clever number called "Kindergarten Conga," which is actually a Conga danced to a nursery rhyme.

"Moon Over Miami" also features Jack Haley and Cobina Wright, Jr. It was directed by Walter Lang and produced by Harry Joe Brown. The screen play by Vincent Lawrence and Brown Holmes was adapted by George Seaton and Lynn Starling from a play by Stephen Powys.

MASONIC HOME NEWS

By J. H. HEATH

DECOTO — Sponsored by the East Bay Masters and Wardens Associations, composed of the 52 lodges of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties the annual breakfast at Hotel Claremont, Berkeley, May 4, was attended by 1000 Master Masons. As every lodge of the twin Counties boasts a Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, it is expected that 400 members will check in for the annual visitation to the Decoto Home, Saturday, Aug. 16. And with most of the Chapters "bringing in the sheaves", to wit, the Annual round-up of jams and jellies, and cakes etc. besides equipment of comforters, table covers, hospital gowns etc. the visit including a colorful reception to the Worthy Grand Matron and her several members of her official family, it will be a gathering worth while.

At the 1940 visitation the record for the year, mostly received on the well established third Saturday of August, was 3194 glasses of jam and jelly, 74 cakes, 104 hospital gowns, 73 table covers, 14 comforters, 31 night gowns, 21 flannel gowns and 24 scarfs.

The Stars will converge in the huge banquet hall in the basement of the South Wing at noon. A talk-fest and the serving of refreshments will be the first thing on the bill. There, as in years past honors of looking after the Grand Officers will be the pleasure of the Orient Chapter, No. 177, Centerville, of which Marjorie Webb of Sunol, is Worthy Matron and Earle Hellwig, Alvarado a nephew of Supervisor George Hellwig Worthy Patron. Incidentally this is the home Chapter of Willa Jane Hellwig, Past Grand Matron.

At the reception in the Assembly hall for Worthy Grand Matron Gertrude Conant San Francisco, and Worthy Grand Patron, Ralph Boynton, Los Angeles. Mrs. Lilian Smith of Alameda a member of Alameda Chapter, President of the East Bay Past Matrons Assn., will preside. Willa Jane Hellwig, P. G. Matron, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern Star Home, Los Angeles, will make the address of welcome. A program of entertainment will be presented.

Supt Eubanks and Matron Lord will be seated on the platform. Pupils of Mrs. Millard Bennett are to be included in the entertainment features.

Not only does Col. Jesse Whited, Chapter No. 18, National Sojourners, San Francisco, know how to put over flag raising Ceremonies like that at the Masonic Home, July 13, but he realizes the value of publicity after the doings. The Widely read Masonic World Magazine publishers in its August number a column long report of the principals. The stars was written by Col. Whited. Supt. Eubanks and Matron Lord, and past Grand Masters Wollenberg and Adams are in the group picture.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Presslar of Sacramento were cheered during the week ending Tuesday, by a visit of several days from their daughter while on a five weeks furlough as matron of the Indian (presbyterian) College for girls in Durant Oklahoma, which is said to be the only Missionary College for Indian girls in the United States. The girls, who number around 60 are from the Cherokee, Chickasaw, Seminole Creek and Osage Tribes. Mrs. Padgett says they are brilliant in their studies and usually lead in their classes in the near-by State College. They also make good as teachers and are a success in matters of business. Mrs. Padgett spends a portion of each year in an executive capacity at the large annual conferences at the Presbyterian Sillerman College at Clinton, La.

The two women, mother, and daughter, met in Long Beach and visited several communities before coming to Decoto. They left Tuesday for Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hullinger, mention of whose marriage was made in The Township Register two weeks ago, are pleasantly located and are receiving their friends in Room 116 South Wing.

Just another illustration of Supt. Eubanks being on the job is the marked improvement of the highway from the gate to and around the buildings in time for the Eastern Star visit of the 16.

Fighting for a New Europe

THE battle of Europe includes all the Allies—Australia, Belgium, British Commonwealth, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland and Yugoslavia—who fight doggedly on for a new and free world. The Allies are united in their effort, a struggle to which their energies, their lives and their liberties are devoted.

A Czechoslovak gunner crew (at top) and an observation unit are shown in action somewhere in England. Their grim tenseness shows their determination that there will again be a Free Europe.

On Sunday there was quite a wreck in the Mission near the grammar school. One lady was quite severely hurt and the Berge Ambulance rushed her to the hospital. Both cars were towed away by the American Garage and Cran es Garage of Niles.

The Mission Boys and girls are due for a surprise on the first morning of school this year as the board of trustees, Mr. Joe Telles, Joe Azevedo and Edward Callahan have seen to it that the Mission has a school bus to bring the pupils in this year. Joe Semas, the custodian of the school, will drive the Ford bus around the route.

Miss Katharine Azevedo has announced her engagement, to several of her friends. The lucky man is Ernest Azevedo of Livermore.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Sweeping the nation is a rousing new song, "Fight for Freedom," with words by Kenneth Webb, well known New York producer of radio shows, and music by Harold Levey, formerly musical director for Warner Bros. who, as publishers of the song, through their division, M. Witmark and Sons have donated 10,000 copies to the Fight for Freedom Committee. (Copies may be obtained from the Fight for Freedom Committee, 1270 Sixth Avenue, New York City, by sending ten cents to cover postage and packing costs.)

The lyrics of "Fight for Freedom" follow:

One and all,
Hear the call,
Hear the call of Liberty,
Ringing clear,
Far and near,
To the sky!
Through the night,
Shining bright,
Freedom's torch is kept alight
As we sound our battle cry—

Fight, Fight for Freedom,
Stand by your guns.
Liberty is calling to
Her daughters and her sons.
From hill and valley,
From shore to shore,
Anything worth keeping
Is worth fighting for.

Land of the free,
Home of the brave
To Tryanny,
Who'll be a slave?
Our pledge shall be
Rather the grave
Than lose our land of Liberty.

Fight, Fight for Freedom,
Keep her torch bright.
Every land of Liberty
Must battle for the right.
As our fathers
In days of yore,
Anything worth keeping
Is worth fighting for.

Fight, Fight for Freedom,
Where is your pride?
Will you lose the liberty
For which your fathers died?
Wake from your sleeping,
Now we implore.
Anything worth keeping
Is worth fighting for.

RELIEF CLIENTS TAKE CARE OF THEMSELVES

The relief "crisis" predicted by the Olson Administration when the Legislature refused to appropriate funds for the SRA has evaporated into thin air, our spy advises. Tens of thousands of persons formerly on the dole have gone back to work and are getting regular paychecks instead of relief checks. And Governor Olson, according to the grapevine, has decided NOT to call the Legislature into special session to cope with the relief problem. Reason: Unemployment has simply ceased to be a major State problem.

A RICH MAN'S SON WHO LOVES THE PEOPLE

By: United Service Organizations

Much has been heard about sincerity or the lack of that quality in men of great stature among financiers and industrialists. Men who, by thrift, efficiency or heritage, or a combination of all three, have built, maintained or increased fortunes, endure criticism or enjoy praise at various times. Often criticism has arisen from the mere fact that a man is wealthy.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. is one of those men.

An example of Mr. Rockefeller's sincerity was forcefully provided recently when he personally contributed $100,000 to the United Service Organizations fund for building and maintaining the morale of the nation's defenders through establishment of much-needed clubhouses near army, navy and defense industry concentrations.

Not satisfied with sitting back after extending his own financial assistance to an organization that will greatly benefit America's soldiers, including his own volunteer son, Mr. Rockefeller accepted the honorary chairmanship of the New York parents' and neighbors' division of USO — an assignment which brings him in close touch with parents representing all races and creeds, all branches of endeavor and all possible brackets of incomes.

Mr. Rockefeller and all of these others were drawn together in the bond of love for the boys in the service. It would be well to study a ten-point creed with Mr. Rockefeller told the members of the division he holds essential to usefulness and happiness.

The creed is: "I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity an obligation, every possession a duty."

"I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; the government is the servant of the people and not their master."

"I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with the head or with the hand; that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living."

"I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs."

"I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order."

"I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character — not wealth or power or position — is of supreme worth."

"I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

"I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with his will."

"I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might."

Rich man, poor man a lofty creed!

HITLER'S GAS TANK ALMOST EMPTY

The gas tank of Hitler's blitz wagon, in the judgement of oil experts, is dangerously low. The Nazi war machine had oil and gas for the Battle of France; it still had sufficient reserve for the prolonged bombing of Britain which followed, and an adequate supply for the submarines which waged a merciless warfare on England's shipping. The Balkan campaign, while it ate into Germany's reserves, still didn't stall the Nazi war machine. The blitzkrieg, to be successful, depends upon terrific, all-out action, with a lightning follow through. The consumption of oil and gasoline is staggering, but the swiftness with which Hitler's earlier campaigns were won saved him from disaster.

The Russian campaign, however, is now in its eighth week, and while the Soviet forces have suffered colossal losses, they are still far from vanquished. In fact, Germany's losses, both in men and equipment may be greater than Russia's. And all the oil wells in Germany's possession, including the Rumanian, do not equal one-fourth of her needs if the Russian campaign continues at the present pace.

With all its carnage, and its huge consumption of war materials, the present blitz hasn't been climaxed with the customary lightning follow through. Current estimates indicate the daily consumption of oil and gas by the German machine is twenty times that in any great German drives of World War days. Italy short of oil for her own uses, can't lend any to her ally. Japan, with trouble on her own doorstep, certainly can't rush up reserves for the stalled German machine. And Hitler's tank, if the gauge is accurate, is almost empty.

Ordinarily we feel sorry for the fellow who runs out of gas a long way from the gas station. But in this instance, nothing would please us more than a telephoto picture of a British tow car going to pick up Hitler's blitz wagon; that would be something to put away in the family album. — California Feature Service.

STOCKINGS — Our imports of silk from Japan and other places have been cut off, so there is going to be a shortage of silk stockings. Of course Uncle Sam, still masquerading as the new deal, thinks he has to do something about it. But blessed if he knows what to do!

Why in the name of common sense, (of which commodity the new deal doesn't have anything but of) does our government have to do anything about it?

There are millions of silk stockings in stores all over the nation. Women who can afford to buy them will buy them, fancy regulations notwithstanding. Women who can't afford to buy them won't buy them, regardless of price fixing, taxes or other regulations.

And when the present stocks run out, quite without governmental fiat, the manufacturers will turn to rayon, acetate and other silk substitutes such as women have been getting in other garments for years past.

Seems our president and congress have more important things to do just now than fret about women's silk stockings. Come the worst, women can wear cotton ones, or anklets, or nice long ribbed black ones such as you and I wore when we were kids.

SMART — Months have passed since the jingoists would have hurled us headlong into war. We can thank our astute President for keeping us out of it this long. And it begins to look like he can keep us out of it indefinitely.

Japan is in no position to Challenge us. What bombing would do to the paper-thin houses in Japanese cities is appalling to contemplate — especially to the Japanese. And the Japanese have a very wholesome respect for the might of Uncle Sammy.

France can't drag us in. And when you say France, which of the five Frances do you mean: the Syrian French, now under British control; the North African French under Weygand, the De Gaulle French in England, the occupied France under Petain-Laval, or the unoccupied France under starvation.

Jackanapes Hitler has finally got his blood-thirsty teeth full of Russian bones and he's about choking.

So who or what is going to plunge the U. S. into war? We can be thankful we have an astute President in command, who looks twice before he leaps once, — and then happily, he doesn't leap!

GR-R-R-R! — The poor Japanese! They feel they just HAVE to ape Big Brother (?) Hitler and fight somebody, but who? First their fleet and troops are massing on Thailand; then they're massing on Vladivostok. Meantime there's an unfinished war raging in China, which they can't somehow wiggle out of.

Why doesn't it occur to these unfortunate people to lay down their guns and quit fighting? their economy is wrecked financially, our economic sanctions will strangle them, and the flower of their manhood has spilled its blood in China.

What else have they got to fight for? The Dutch and British, and possibly Uncle Sam will definitely resist them in the Dutch East Indies; their "allies" (save the

Newark Merchants Win First Game Of The Season

NEWARK — The Newark Merchants baseball team recently formed won their first game Sunday by defeating Milpitas, by a score of 5 to 4. The Newark Club earned their first basehit of the game in the sixth inning, although they had scored 3 runs until then on the issuance of six walks and an error.

Suess, pitcher for Milpitas, allowed 6 hits and struck out 16 men while Roy Duarte of Centerville for the Newark Club allowed 5 hits and struck out 11 men. Newark was leading in the ball game 3 to 0 until the sixth inning when Milpitas scored 3 runs to add their total to four. Newark cinched the game in the 7th and 8th by scoring a run making the final score 5 to 4.

The star hitter for the day was Mervin Marshall, left fielder of the Newark Club, getting a double and a triple. L. Bettencourt of Newark and Soares of Milpitas each hit a double.

The Newark Merchants baseball team is being sponsored by the Newark Sportsmen Club, and is managed by Henry Nunes, assisted by Frank DeSalles. The club is hoping to strengthen their hitting power in order that they may play better teams from Oakland. The Newark club in the three games played up to date has gotten only .333 average for any club.

If the fans would only take interest again in baseball, and follow their teams when playing at home or in other communities, Newark would be able to produce one of the best teams in its history. This club is composed mostly of young ballplayers who in the next few years may be seen playing professional baseball.

The Newark Merchants will play Sunday with Hayward at Newark. The game is scheduled to start at 2:30.

California's Rural Areas Gain

CALIFORNIA was one of 12 states in which the trend of industry and population toward small towns like the above typical western village was most pronounced during the past decade, according to an analysis of latest federal census figures by Future, magazine of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. This trend, noted nationally in a 64 per cent gain for rural population during the decade, indicates that more men who work and trade in towns are seeking "greater personal freedom" by building homes in the country. Future points out. As an example, the magazine cited Schenley Distillers corporation which, surveying personnel at its plants in Lawrenceburg, Ind., and Frankfort, Ky., found an increasing number of workmen were building new homes on small farms within easy driving distance of work.

ALTHOUGH only 2,005,122 of California's 6,907,387 residents were classed as "rural," the state's non-urban population nevertheless gained 32.2 per cent during the decade, compared with only 17.6 per cent for city areas like Los Angeles, above. Improved communications, air travel and more widespread use of conveniences once available only in cities are among important factors in the new trend, according to Future's analysis.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

Organized labor, with the aid of an army of professional petition solicitors, is making a desperate, last-ditch stand to delay enforcement of the bill enacted by the State Legislature banning the use of secondary boycotts, or the "hot cargo" designation, in labor disputes.

The referendum petitions have been in circulation for several weeks and thousands of dollars are being spent from union treasuries in an attempt to get sufficient voter-signatures to force the issue to a vote of the people at next year's General Election.

Whether the referendum effort is successful will depend, to large extent, on whether California voters are sufficiently fed up with labor excesses and needless strike tie-ups to be on the alert and investigate the petitions they are asked to sign.

Farmers, whose very existence is threatened by continued use of the vicious secondary boycott, should be particularly careful in inquiring into the merits of any referendum or initiative petition they are asked to sign at this time. More than that, they should do everything possible to warn their neighbors against signing such petitions.

If operation of the act, prohibiting secondary boycotts, would not be held up pending the election, it might be just as well to let the issue go to the people, for there is no question in this writer's mind that the people of California would back up the action of the Legislature and vote approval of the anti-"hot cargo" act by an overwhelming majority. But if the referendum petitions are allowed to qualify, enforcement of the new law will be delayed for more than a year—and during that time, despite the country's need for stepped up production in the cause of national defense, labor will doubtless consider that it has a license to employ the secondary boycott against agriculture, business and national defense industries.

There can be no slightest justification, either morally or economically, even in normal times, for use of the secondary boycott weapon. It is labor racketeering at its worst, for it permits unscrupulous labor bosses to tie up crops of farmers who have no labor difficulties and no dispute with their employees; it permits them to declare such crops "hot cargo" and let them rot on the docks, or in the warehouses, despite the fact that the producer is not a party to the

ICE FOLLIES IS SETTING ALL-TIME BOXOFFICE RECORD

Now nearing the end of its current run at Winterland, in San Francisco, the spectacular Ice Follies of 1941, latest edition of the world's greatest musical revue on ice, is setting an alltime boxoffice record for Bay area entertainment.

The glittering ice show presented nightly by a cast of international skating stars, is making its third visit to San Francisco and is proving to be a bigger-than-ever attraction for both local and out-of-towners.

Removed entirely from the step-by-step limitations of other forms of entertainment, the Ice Follies has developed a personification of grace and rhythm combined with color and beauty. The most masterful effects of modern showmanship have been blended into the production to provide a spectacle which has drawn patrons back time after time.

The current presentation of the Ice Follies is entirely different from the one which delighted hundreds of thousands of people in San Francisco last year and the year before, as well as millions of others throughout the country. Program, music, routines, costumes and lighting have all been changed.

Comedy is being stressed, along with the graceful performance of highly trained precision numbers which feature the gorgeous "Ice Folliesettes". Comedians again include the renowned team of Shipstad and Johnson; Frick and Frack the McKelland Brothers and others. Evelyn Chandler and Bruce Mapes, Bess Erhardt and Roy Shipstad, Fran Claudet and Osborne Colson, Idi Papez and Karl Zwack are among the other famous ice skating stars appearing nightly.

Ice Follies tickets are available for every performance at Winterland, Walnut 0112; at Sherman Clay boxoffices in San Francisco and in Oakland; and by mail order addressed to Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, San Francisco.

controversy at issue and may be ruined by the loss of his entire year's income. But in a period of national emergency, with the country's security dependent on its ability to produce, the attempt of labor leaders to regain the right to use this outlaw-weapon amounts to sabotage of the national defense program.

Cool heads in labor's councils prevailed when the Legislature adjourned and it was announced that no attempt would be made to invoke the referendum against the bill banning the secondary boycott. Many labor leaders stated, off the record, that they were convinced the public was against the practice — and that labor would take a drubbing if the question was forced to a vote of the people. After a few weeks, however, the hot-heads were able to high-pressure the AFL executive committee into reversing itself and taking a position in favor of a referendum campaign. More than $50,000 has been made available for the petition drive from union funds, it is reported, and professional solicitors are at work in all centers of population.

It is now time for the average Californian, who is the victim of labor's excesses, to speak his mind — and serve notice that the days of high-handed labor racketeering in California are over. The quickest, surest, most economical way to deliver that ultimatum is to defeat the petition drive now in progress. But if labor is able to qualify the petitions, then California should do the job at the polls — and do it by such a smashing majority that the "hot-cargo" practice will be kicked into the discard for all time.

California has 1,597,350 acres devoted to fruit, nut, and vine plantings.

N S G W OCCIDENTAL WESTVACO, K OF C TO ENTER PLAYOFFS

The Native Sons club, managed by Kenneth Ferry; the Occidental club managed by Frank Mayer; the Westvaco club managed by Joe Milani; and the Knights of Columbus managed by Vernon Willard, are all cinched to participate in the playoff games for 1941 commencing Monday evening, August 18 at the High School grounds.

Silver Dollar located in fifth place lost two games last week to force themselves out of the first division entirely, else they would have had a good chance of squeezing Westvaco or K. of C. out of the first division.

The W. O. W. team managed by Artie Duarte climbed into sixth place this week, after being situated in eighth place for several weeks. The Central Chev team which has been going strong since the fourth week of play slid back into eighth place when they lost to Occidental last week.

According to rumors the playoff games should draw huge crowds as the four leaders are even by matched. The Native Sons have a fairly good hitting club, and they have a pitcher who has pitched 17 wins against 1 loss for them. Occidental, a new club in the league is rated as the best hitting club in the league. Telles, pitcher has pitched beautiful ball in the clutch this season for Occidental. The Westvaco team hailing from Newark produced one of the best pitchers in the league, "Lefty" Miller. The K. of C. with its new hitting power and the steady pitching of John Vierra, is also considered a great team.

As announced in last weeks issue playoff games will commence Monday evening, August 18 and probably come to a close Friday evening, August 29. Playoff games will be played Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evening of each week, unless a last-minute change is made by the association.

Results of last weeks games follow:

Monday evening: Kraftile in the first game upset Wedgewood by a score of 5 to 4. The W. O. W. team in the second game trounced Co. Employees 20 to 12.

Tuesday evening: The K. of C.

nosed out Silver Dollar 6 to 4 in the first game, while Native Sons defeated Decoto Boosters 17 to 12. In the second game, Decoto had to forfeit due to a shortage of players.

Wednesday evening: Wedgewood in the first game behind the steady pitching of a newly developed pitcher, Vernon Vargus, downed Westvaco by a score of 8 to 1. Occidental in the second game defeated Central Chev. 10 to 5.

Thursday evening: In the first game Co. Employees defeated Kraftile 9 to 8 and also won the game beforehand as Kraftile was unable to place ten players on the field. W. O. W. in the second game defeated Decoto Boosters 11 to 6, again Decoto had to forfeit due to shortage of players.

Friday evening: Westvaco in the first game trounced Silver Dollar 12 to 4 to spoil Silver Dollar's chance of getting into the playoffs. "Lefty" Miller allowed five hits for the winners.

In the second game Occidental nosed out K. of C. 8 to 6. Jack Silva's home run during the middle of the game for the losers with a man on base still didn't produce enough runs for K. of C. "Curly" Houck for the winners also hit a home run. There was a mighty close decision and quite a consultation between the two umpires and the two clubs in the final inning of the second game. There were runners on bases for K. of C. advancing as the batter poked a long fly ball to the outfield. The umpire called the runner going to third base, "safe", and then a moment later reversed his decision to "out".

An automatic self-emptying ash receiver is a new accessory offered by Pontiac dealers. The ash receiver clamps on the lower edge of the ventilating pane at the driver's left. BABY'S HAND IS OPERATED UPON TWICE IN WEEK

Little Diane Waynflete of Niles, aged two, who was taken to the childrens ward in St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco on Thursday afternoon of last week was under surgery for an hour and a half the day following when Dr. Leo Eliesser, noted plastic surgeon, opened up the cinctured skin and blood vessels of her right wrist and grafted on new skin from her forearm.

The baby underwent surgery again on Monday, and is remarkably calm about it. She eats and sleeps normally, does not cry, has no temperature and has been spared infection or other complications.

The left wrist and hand, less seriously burned, is healing without surgery and should be in use again in a week or two.

TRY ONE YOURSELF!

Mrs. George Sladek of Niles advertised a piano for sale in the want ad column of The Township Register last week. The next day it was sold, and inquiries are still coming in, she says. — In the light of which, how about advertising some unwanted article in your household?
